Shandong Luoxin Pharmacy Stock Co., Ltd. Appoints Viriathus Capital as Exclusive OTCQX Advisor

Becomes first Chinese company to list on OTCQX International platform

New York, NY (January 21, 2010) – Shandong Luoxin Pharmacy Stock Co., Ltd. (SEHK: 8058, OTCQX: SLUXY), a Chinese pharmaceutical manufacturer, is now trading on the International OTCQX. Viriathus Capital LLC will be serving as Luoxin Pharma’s exclusive OTCQX Advisor and The Bank of New York Mellon will serve as Luoxin Pharma’s Principal American Liaison.

“Viriathus is very excited to be working with Luoxin Pharma, which will be the first Chinese company to list on the OTCQX International platform,” said David Batista, senior managing director of Viriathus. “With our sponsorship platform consisting of investment banking, equity research and financial marketing services, Viriathus is uniquely positioned to help elevate this company’s profile amongst U.S. investors.”

Mr. Liu Baoqi, Chairman of Luoxin Pharma commented, “Our OTCQX listing provides Luoxin with local access to the largest capital market in the world, which will enhance our corporate image and broaden our shareholder base globally. We take great pride in joining the esteemed group of international companies already trading on OTCQX as the first member coming from China and looking forward to the increased investor awareness, information availability and trading visibility this new market tier offers.”
